What's the best way PSG can honor you?

PSG is doing a phenomenal job and I am in awe of all the great work you are doing Masha'Allah. Especially since you all have your family's and careers. It makes me so happy to see all the great events you are putting together to bring parents to school and get them involved in their child's school. This is what parent involvement is! When they help create and support events like you have been doing. I'm loving this new generation of parents.
